

African Regional Conference on the Right of Access to Information

*Accra, Ghana
February 7-9, 2010*

Sunday February 7

10:30 am Registration and Coffee – *La Palm Conference Centre, outside Afayhe Secretariat

Plenary Sessions – Adae Kesie Hall

11:30 am Opening Session

Samuel O. Ablakwa, Deputy Minister of Information, Ghana
Jimmy Carter, Former President of the United States of America
Sanjay Pradhan, Vice President, World Bank Institute
Laura Neuman, Manager Access to Information Project and Associate Director, The Carter Center

12:45 pm Photo

1:00 pm Luncheon – *Royal Dragon Chinese Restaurant, La Palm Hotel

2:00 pm Panel 1: Does Transparency Matter?

Chair: Minister Natty Davis, Minister of State, Development and Reconstruction, Liberia
Respondents: Minister Vitoria Dias Diogo, Minister of Public Service, Mozambique
Minister Lambert Mende Omalanga, Minister of Communication and Media,
Democratic Republic of the Congo

Akere Muna, Vice-Chair of the Board, Transparency International
Owen Barder, Director, AidInfo, Development Initiatives, Ethiopia
Chris Anderson, Director, Corporate & External Affairs Africa, Newmont Ghana Gold Ltd.

3:45 pm Panel 2: If Transparency Matters, Why is Africa Lagging Behind?

Chair: Minister Ronnie Shikapwasha, Minister of Information and Broadcasting Services, Zambia
Respondents: Minister Moustapha Guirassy, Minister of Communications and Government
Spokesperson, Senegal
Deputy Minister Shemelis Kemal, Office of Government Communication Affairs, Ethiopia

Faith Pansy Tlakula, Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Expression & Commissioner, African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights, African Union
Rick Snell, Senior Lecturer in Law, University of Tasmania, Australia
Rakesh Rajani, Executive Director, Twaweza, Tanzania

5:15 pm Break

